DINING & LOUNGE

OUR HISTORY

Built in 1929 by Oswald and Ernest Gusdal, previously known as the Wigwam, 1929 Dining and Lounge was the first commercial building to be built in this area.

When first open as a business it operated 24 hours a day, acting as a commissary and hall for work camps in the area. Throughout the years it also substituted as a dance hall, church, meeting hall, and barracks.

Architecturally, it was built in the Tudor Rustic style, featuring an intricate hipped ceiling, horizontal split-log siding, and central dormer.

In 1992, the building was designated as a Provincial Heritage Site and has been undergoing extensive renovations and restoration work since 1993.

Now in its 9th decade, 1929 Dining & Lounge still serves up locally inspired menu items and liquid libations, remaining a friendly meeting place for all.

1929 Dining & Lounge resides on Treaty 2 territory, the traditional territory of Anishinaabeg, Cree, Oji-Cree, Assiniboine, Dakota, and Dene Peoples, and the homeland of the Métis Nation.
