DINING & LOUNGE

Our History

Built in 1929 by O.J. and E.F. Gurdal, previously known as the Wigwam, 1929 Dining & Lounge was the first commercial building to be built in this area.

When first opened for business, it was operated 24 hours a day, acting as a commissary and hall for work camps in the area. Throughout the years it has also substituted as a dance hall, church, meeting hall, and barracks.

Architecturally, it was built in the Tudor Rustic style, featuring an intricate hipped ceiling, horizontal slit-log siding and central dormer.

In 1992, the Wigwam was designated a Provincial Heritage Site and has been undergoing extensive restoration work and renovations since 1993.

Now in its ninth decade, 1929 Dining & Lounge still serves up locally inspired menu items and liquid libations, remaining a friendly meeting place for all.

1929 Dining & Lounge resides on Treaty 2 territory, the traditional territory of Anishinaabeg, Cree, Ojibwe, Assiniboine, Dakota, and Dene Peoples, and the homeland of the Métis Nation.
